

Want to get published on this global creative platform and become a Bookosmian?

Here are Submission Guidelines

Standard

Submit only an original creation of your own will.

Essay

Have a clear structure with good reasoning and interesting viewpoints, preferably backed by facts and figures. Mention source if quoting people or figures.

Short story

Have an interesting premise, a problem, well rounded characters and clever ending. Do not borrow plot from books/movies and try to stay within 1000-word limit.

Art work

Submit clear, high resolution and multiple JPEG images of your artworks along with a few lines about the theme you have chosen and why, your feelings while creating art, any message your art conveys etc

Book review

Submit name of the book, author/illustrator, your first reaction to the cover page, brief plot summary (NOT the whole story or ending), central idea, characters, your opinion on the story and writing style, what you liked/disliked, anything you would like to change, how does it compare to movie adaptation if applicable, your recommended age rating and review rating (scale of 1-5). No spoilers please!

Travel review

Submit your review of a place you visited, why you decide to go there, where and how it is, when is the best time to visit, must-do activities / must-see places / food, culture / people / unique practices, your journey, things to avoid and your learnings. Do attach photographs from your visit to go along with the piece.

Movie / Tv show / App / Game review

Submit an overview of your choice of subject and opinion on what you liked, what could be better, any interesting context about the subject or the people who created it, your recommended age rating and review rating (scale of 1-5). No spoilers please!

News article

Submit only factual, relevant and unbiased reports in their own words though you can refer to published media reports with a link to source of information.